Add-a-Twist

The waterproof, shockproof organizer that easily slips into backpacks

Light My Fire introduces a new versatile and strong packing concept specifically designed for backpacks on big and small adventures.

Add-a-Twist is the ultimate backpack organizer. Strong, tough and versatile for most demanding outdoor activities. Perfect for everything that needs to be kept dry, safe and easy to find, such as fishing tackle, mobile phone, keys, first aid kit, food and liquids. With Add-a-Twist everything is packed, stored, sorted and protected.

The round design makes Add-a-Twist easy to slip into and pull out of even fully packed backpacks. Containers lock into each other and can be combined endlessly. Each one has a double-sealed lid to make it waterproof and airtight, and the bayonet lock allows quick and easy access.

"After research and customer feedback we identified a need and have since explored a way to deliver a product that is just as great for canoeing, boating and climbing as when popped into kid's backpacks or for bringing your lunch to work", says Light My Fire CEO, Calill Odqvist-Jagusch.

Classic plastic fantastic metallic

Inspired by the qualities of metals, Light My Fire's classics and highly successful stories LunchKit™ and Spork get an edgy palette 2016.

Light My Fire is happy to introduce select metallics – Pink Metal, Pirate Gold, Petroleum and Silver – into its range.

"Metals are strong, rough and ready. As colors they are also high fashion. We simply couldn't resist the temptation to make ours and many others' favorites a bit more hard rock", says Light My Fire CEO, Calill Odqvist-Jagusch.

LunchKit™ will be available in Pink Metal, Pirate Gold and Petroleum. Spork will also be available in Silver.

Welcome Light My Fire OF SWEDEN

Light My Fire is going back to its roots to clarify why the company ticks, how it works and what it actually delivers. The addition of a "of Sweden" to the logo is a subtle yet important sign of what to expect from the future.

The new Light My Fire of Sweden name defines and expresses the strong core that the company has had from the very start.

"We're approaching our 20th jubilee, conquering more and more markets. It is simply time to manifest that our strategy is based on our Swedish and Viking heritage – innovation, quality and superior design combined with powerful PR and surprise attacks. "Of Sweden" may seem like a small addition, but it's our way to pay homage to our love of the outdoors, design that conquers the world and a no-nonsense way of doing business", says Light My Fire CEO, Calill Odqvist-Jagusch.
